

It was an offer like no other...

"You want to break into film.
Then here's your opportunity."

We are looking for 20 young people -14 years and over to write, produce, edit and act in a film covering issues around personal safety issues and knife crime.

If you think you're the next Jessica Alba, Jamie Foxx or Tarrantino get in touch. This could be your lucky break.

The project starts early in February and runs for 20 weeks, the completed film will have its grand premier in the summer at the Lighthouse.

To be in with a chance of being selected for this exciting project, complete an application form which can be downloaded from our website www.wton-partnership.org.uk/wednesfield-and-fallings-park

For further details contact Cas Simpson at Ashmore Park Youth Club on 01902 552371.

All completed applications forms must be returned by Friday 22nd January 2010.

HURRY, ONLY 20 PLACES AVAILABLE!

suitable for young people 14+

